Cuticura
Miracles of Healing Unparalleled in Medical History.
CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the great natural blood purifier, absorbent, renovator and vitalizer, has shown its grand curative power in scrofula, white swellings, ulcers, erysipelas, swelled neck, scrofulous inflammations, mercurial affections, old sores, eruptions of the skin, sore eyes and scalp affections, with dry, thin and falling hair; and when the CUTICURA, a Medicinal Jelly, and the CUTICURA SOAP, prepared from it, are applied to external symptoms, the cures affected by the CUTICURA REMEDIES are marvellous.

SCROFULA.
SCROFULA.—Hon. William Taylor, Boston, State Senator of Massachusetts, permanently cured of a humor of the face and scalp that had been treated unsuccessfully for twelve years by many of Boston's best physicians and most noted specialists, as well as European authorities. He says: "I have been so elated with my successful use of the Cuticura Remedies that I have stopped men in the streets to tell them of my case."

RUNNING SORES.
RUNNING SORES. Henry Landecker, Dover, N. H., certifies that Aug. 21, 1877, he broke his leg. The bone was set by a physician. Upon removing the splints sores broke out from the knee to the heel. Doctors called them varicose veins, and ordered rubber stockings. Paid $25 for stockings, without any signs of cure. Bought CUTICURA REMEDIES and was rapidly and permanently cured. Certified to by Lothrops & Pinkham, Druggists, Dover, N. H.

SALT RHEUM.
SALT RHEUM.—Geo. F. Owen, Dealer in Pianos, Grand Rapids, Mich., was troubled for nine years with Salt Rheum. Tried every medicine known to the trade, and was attended by many physicians with only temporary relief. Cured by CUTICURA REMEDIES.

How to make them so. Keep them in Health and They will take care of the Rest.
The joy of every well-regulated household comes chiefly from the children. Thousands of affectionate parents do not take care of their children. Through ignorance more than through culpable neglect they suffer them to fall sick and die, when knowledge might have saved them to love and home. Dr. David Kennedy offers his "Favorite Remedy" as emphatically a medicine for the children—gentle in its action, containing no harmful ingredients whatever, going straight to the Blood, which, when impure, is the seat and source of disease. "Favorite Remedy" is the friend of childhood and should be found in every nursery in the land. Keep it in your house for your children's sake, as well as for your own. Try it and you will be glad you saw this article. Make no mistake. The medicine is "Favorite Remedy" and the proprietor's name and address: Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N.Y. One dollar a bottle.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

REPORTS OF THE SECRETARY AND TREASURER.

Secretary's Report.

Ladies:—I think it must be very pleasant to all of you, to have this annual occasion, to meet face to face those whom you have known so well, and to whom you have become so strongly attached by mutual acts of kindness and good will, and with whom you have sympathized so deeply all the year round, in efforts to do good to those under your charge.

Though many of you have labored for long years for our Home, I am quite sure that you are not weary in well doing, but that the work seems as fresh and inviting as when you first commenced it.

This is the tenth annual report I have had the pleasure of making. I only regret that I have not been able to make them more interesting and valuable, but such ability as I had I have freely given for the cause so dear to the hearts of all those who have been engaged in it.

This meeting reminds us how swiftly the years pass by, and yet in this age where everything moves so rapidly, wonderful changes for good or evil take place in a single year. During the year just closed there were in our own country, destructive fires, tornadoes and accidents by sea and land, sending thousands upon thousands to premature graves. In some countries even pestilence and famine stalked abroad, and the cry for help and bread sent a thrill of horror to every heart. We have reason for gratitude, that none of these great evils came near us, and especially that our Home has not only been free from any adverse fortune, but has been blessed with a great degree of success and prosperity. Kindly indeed has our Heavenly Father dealt with us in this respect.

At our annual meeting held January 6th, 1880, there were in the Home forty children; received during the year, fourteen; returned to parents or placed in situation, fourteen; remaining in the Home forty, sixteen of which are soldier's children. The whole number under charge during the year fifty-four.

There was no serious illness during the year. We would not omit to acknowledge our deep indebtedness to the gratuitous services of Dr. G. P. Jefferds and especially to Dr. S. B. Morison, whose interest in the welfare of the home has always been more than that of a professional kind, he having been associated with it from its origin, and being always ready to listen to appeals for advice and assistance, which are often presented and never fail of receiving a ready response.

As the Home continues to support the children of soldiers, there seems to be no good reason why the State should not continue to make an appropriation to defray at least a part of the expense of such support.

The increasing interest manifested in the Home is a sufficient testimonial of the fitness of the Matron for the arduous and responsible position which she has so acceptably occupied for eight years.

The influence of the sewing school in the afternoon has been very beneficial, and I feel that we cannot be too grateful to the teacher for her kind and self-denying efforts in this department of work as well as in that devoted to study in the forenoon and for her interest in the children's welfare. The boys attend the public school.

The Sabbath afternoon exercises have been conducted under the special management of Mr. George W. Merrill and family, with increasing interest and profit not only to the children but to all who have attended them. In after years the children will look back with great pleasure to those exercises and bless those who were so zealous and untiring in their efforts for their happiness.

Various Editors have continued to send papers gratuitously. If it was generally known how much they are appreciated, I think most of the Editors in the State would do likewise.

The children had their annual excursion on the steamer City of Bangor, Capt. Barbour furnishing tickets. Mrs. H. E. Prentiss subscribed to the Mercantile Library and furnished the "Weekly Christian Union" during the last year; Mrs. Walter Brown the "Harper's Weekly Young People"; Maine Central Railroad transportation gratuitously for a boy to go to a new home; Steamer Katahdin for a boy to go to Boston; Mr. Duren provided tickets to Penobscot Musical Association; Bangor Reform Club sent eleven dollars, the proceeds of a concert given by "the Little Wanderers" of Boston; Mr. J. S. Webb his usual "memorial gift," fifteen dollars; Wildes P., Louis L. and Willie T. Veazie gave to the library thirty-six volumes of "Crowell's Primary Sabbath School book." Thanksgiving day was celebrated by a bountiful entertainment furnished as in former years by the liberality of friends, which was highly appreciated.

Of all the holidays in the year none are so attractive or looked forward to with so great pleasure by the children as Christmas; for then it is that they not only expect to hear "merry, merry Christmas" from every tongue, but likewise expect presents from their friends which will make their hearts glad, and surely their highest anticipations were fully realized if their happy and joyful faces were any indication of the joy of their hearts. The tree prepared for them blazing with lighted candles and presents for all, was as beautiful as a fairy scene, and when in concert they sang "merry, merry Christmas" I think all those kind friends present, in their hearts at least, echoed "merry, merry Christmas," not doubting that the pleasure then enjoyed by those little orphans would have a good influence upon them until another similar anniversary should come around. Interesting remarks were made by Rev. W. A. Fiske, of St. John's Episcopal church, and it was the universal opinion that the day was never more appropriately celebrated or with more happy results. Thanks to many friends who gave so liberally for the occasion and spent so much time to make the children happy. The tree as in years past was prepared and decorated entirely by Mr. George W. Merrill and family. May their labor of love yield them a bright reward.

Our Home—do we realize all which that word implies?

There are in our country many institutions under the names of asylums, retreats, houses of refuge, etc., which are doing a great amount of good by saving children from degradation and ruin. You have been striving not only to do that, but to make our institution a home indeed, as well as in name—not only to keep children from want and suffering, but to make them understand and enjoy the blessing of a well regulated home, and this is indeed one of the greatest blessings which can be bestowed upon any child—to feed and clothe and educate is indeed a great good, but to make a true home is by far more than that. To assist our friends and neighbors, who are destitute and suffering, is but the part of common humanity, and is esteemed the duty of every one, but to care for outcasts and strangers requires by far a higher standard of self-sacrifice, and by so much the greater is the reward. Many feel if they have provided for their own families and relatives they have performed the part of good citizens, and have done their whole duty. But we are all children of one common family, having a common destiny. None are so degraded and wretched, as to be beyond hope of being made better and happier.

The rapidity with which the years pass away should bring vividly to your minds the necessity of improving your time to the best possible advantage, and your greatest responsibility to those placed under your charge. Though at the present day great and increasing effort is being made for the benefit of children, very few I think can say they have done all they could and yet there are some notable examples worthy of all praise, where persons have spent all their time and all their fortunes, for the benefit of the rising generation. It was recently stated in a Boston paper that "there is now living in the State of Massachusetts, a lady ninety-three years old, whose husband became an invalid for life soon after she was married at the age of twenty-four years. She took care of and supported her husband by her own efforts for fifty years, educated and placed in business her two boys, educated and placed in good positions twenty orphan girls, besides visiting and taking care of the sick and destitute at all hours of the day and night."

Whilst every one knows that it is of great importance to train up children properly, and that the subject has been spoken of and written upon for ages, yet comparatively few, even at the present day, give any great attention as to devising ways and means to accomplish it or realize how great an interest is involved aside from the good of the child itself. Homer said, "Children belong less to their parents than to the State—they are the children of the people—they are the hope of the State. It is too late to mould them when they are spoiled. It is much better to prevent the evil than to be obliged to furnish it." Confucius said, "It cannot be when the root is neglected that what should spring from it should be well ordered."

The State has a vital interest in its youth who must grow up either to good citizenship, to sustain and protect it, or as unworthy sons to undermine and destroy it. Pericles said of the Grecian youth killed in battle, "The loss which the State suffers by the destruction of its youth is like the loss which the year suffers by the destruction of Spring, and loss by the perversion of youth, how much more injurious to the State." A recent writer has said "neglected childhood, ignorance, idleness, vice, evil associations and their kindred influences, are the causes of crime and pauperism." Children so surrounded, grow up with no self respect, no self reliance, easily drift into evil ways, and once lost, seldom have the desire to return to virtuous ways."

Though there has recently been more thought upon the subject, the general rule of governments, from time immemorial, has been to neglect children until they have become criminals, and then furnish means for their support instead of saving them from crime by preventive means. This policy pursued so persistently by society has built up and perpetuated the dependent and criminal classes to a large extent, thus virtually forcing the child to become criminal, and then paid the penalty by increased taxation and a tainted society;—aside from the political economy of the subject, the humanity of it might well touch the hardest heart. It cannot be too often or too zealously impressed upon all, that if you save the child, you will probably save the man.

Every nation has a profound interest in the good education and moral training of its children.

It is the right, as well as the duty of the State, to enforce this principle: neither the fault or misfortune of the parents should deprive the children of proper moral training. The child badly brought up must almost necessarily become a cause of trouble to society, since the idle and vagrant will soon pass into the criminal. If the State or society neglects its duty towards such children, they cannot with fairness hold them to a strict account for their acts. There can be no question that prevention, is safer, and more certain and economical than punishment or reformation, and that the people who make and control our government should be thoroughly aroused to a realizing sense of the importance of this fact, and of their duties and responsibilities, if they would show to the world that they are anxious to take the lead in moral and intellectual training of their children, as they now do in material and physical interests.

It is a sad thought that so many children are born in an atmosphere of want and suffering, and exposed constantly to evil influences which tend so strongly to lead them on to ruin; and yet this is not an unmixed evil, as every one is better and happier for all efforts to assist the poor and neglected, and in any way to do good to their fellow beings.

Let me commend our Home to all, for here such children are educated and constantly watched over, and surrounded by influences calculated to make them good men and women and worthy members of society. If there is anything that will come home to one's heart and excite the deepest sympathy, it is the thought of a little child thrown out upon the sea of life, without a mother and left alone. Take it, educate it, and whatever may be the result, God will bless your efforts. If giving a cup of cold water receives a blessing, how much more it must be worth to save a child!

The memory of our own childhood is the sweetest and most sacred that we hold on earth, and the influences we received from a mother's love, are the most blessed and enduring which we ever received from our Heavenly Father.

Our Home is now so well established and has done so good a work, that there seems very little need of any new theory regarding it, or of any great change, except more energy and zeal in the same general direction which has been thus far pursued. Let me repeat, it is a place of refuge where poor and unfortunate children are gathered together to be fed, clothed, educated, and watched over with care and kindness, and as much as possible to realize the blessings of a good home; and thus has it gained the respect and sympathy of all who realize how well it is adapted to the purpose for which it was designed.

It is a constant appeal to reason, conscience, and an enlightened public opinion, and all will admit, if the children are started in the right direction, the men and women of the world will follow in the same path.

We trust it will be an enduring monument to the liberality of our citizens and an ever-increasing ornament to our city.

Respectfully submitted.
MARY L. PATTEN, Sec'y.

THE CENSUS OF 1880.

[From the N. Y. Tribune.]

The New Year's gift from Washington is an approximate report of the census of 1880, authorized by the Superintendent, and believed to be very close to the final result. It makes the population of the United States 50,152,559, though the footing of the population given for the States and Territories separately is 180 less. The increase since 1870 is 30,07 per cent. It appears that the rate of increase which prevailed before the war has now been almost precisely realized. Indeed, the population in 1880, as estimated some years ago by Mr. Elliott, of the Census Bureau, on the theory that the loss resulting from the war was 3,160,401, and that the rate of increase from 1840 to 1880, excepting for that difference, would be exactly the same in each decade according to the mathematical principle of equal second differences, was 50,858,000. The variation of this estimate from the actual result thus far ascertained is only 294,559, and a greater variation than that must be attributed to defects of the census of 1870 in some of the Southern States, if the new census be accepted as correct. Supposing that the loss directly and indirectly caused by the war was only 2,866,000, and that the census of 1870 was so far inaccurate that the actual population then was 294,559 greater than the population returned, the rate of increase according to the law of constant second differences would now be precisely maintained. If the same rate should be preserved for three more decades the population would be about 63,770,000 in 1890, about 79,412,000 in 1900, and about 97,078,000 in 1910.

The Southern States appear to have increased faster than the Northern. But if the census of 1870 was defective, as is maintained by the Bureau after repeated investigations, and defective almost exclusively in the Southern States, the apparent excess in rate of increase in those States disappears. Thus, if the error above supposed to have existed in the returns for 1870, namely, a deficiency of 294,559, be supposed to have been wholly in Southern States, the true population of those States in 1870 would be 14,172,174, and the increase from 1870 to 1880 only 4,336,000, or 30.5 per cent. The comparison of results by sections, as officially reported, gives an increase of 27.1 per cent. in the Northern States, from 24,277,889 in 1870 to 30,861,609 in 1880. In the Southern States the increase has been 33.3 per cent., from 13,877,615 in 1870 to 18,508,176 in 1880. If the next apportionment should allow for 300 members, the ratio would be 164,506 to each district, and the former Slave States would be entitled to 112 members in the aggregate, while the Free States would be entitled to 188 members. In the distribution by States, however, different results may be obtained. The States which touch on the Atlantic, with Vermont and West Virginia, have a population of 21,921,559. The remaining States and Territories, excepting Ohio, have a population of 25,033,206, or very nearly half of the whole, so that a line equally dividing the population between East and West would fall near the western border of Ohio. As far as it is possible to determine from the returns thus far published, it appears that the fortieth parallel of latitude equally divides the population between North and South within less than 200,000.

Old divisions into Eastern, Middle, Southern and and Western States have become completely obsolete. It would be well if all statisticians would embrace the opportunity which the new census gives to adopt for the future a more intelligible, useful and truthful classification of the States. Because of political affiliations, the old Slave States are naturally classed together as "the South," and all of them lie wholly below the fortieth parallel, except a narrow strip of Missouri. Yet great confusion continually arises from the habit, which official and many other statisticians have, of including Maryland and Delaware with New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, as "the Middle States." The States north of 40° and east of Ohio naturally form a division by themselves, and may be called Eastern States. They have a population of 14,508,115 against 12,298,730 in 1870, an increase of 17.9 per cent. The New England States have a population of 4,011,312, with an increase of 15.0 per cent; the three remaining States, New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, have 10,496,803, with an increase of 19.1 per cent.

The Southern, including all the sixteen formerly slaveholding States, have a population of 18,508,176, with an increase of 33.3 per cent. Of these the seven States which touch on the Atlantic, with West Virginia, have a population of 7,413,444, and an increase of 29.6 per cent., while the eight remaining States which are drained into the Gulf, have a population of 11,094,732, with an increase of 36.0 per cent.

The West naturally includes all States lying mainly north of the fortieth parallel and east of the Rocky Mountains, and, for political reasons, Kansas and Colorado. These ten States have a population of 15,251,776, against 11,285,499 in 1870, an increase of 35.2 per cent. The five Western States which lie north of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi Rivers have a population of 11,204,270, and an increase of 22.8 per cent.; the five which lie west of the Mississippi have a population of 4,047,506, and a gain of 87.3 per cent. No State east of the Mississippi has gained as much as 50 per cent. in ten years. But Iowa, with 36.0 per cent., and Nevada with 46 5 per cent., are the only States west of the Mississippi that have not gained more than 50 per cent. The increase in California is only 54.3 per cent.; in Arkansas, 65.7 per cent.; in Minnesota, 77.6 per cent.; in Oregon, 92 2 per cent; in Texas, 95 2 per cent.; in Kansas, 173.1 per cent.; in Nebraska, 267.7 per cent.; and in Colorado, 387.8 per cent. The Pacific States have a population of 1,101,718, with a gain of 58.8 per cent. during the decade.

PLAISTED'S ATTACK ON GEN. GARFIELD.

IN THE INTEREST OF COMMUNISTS.

On the 4th of July 1878 General Garfield made a noble speech in which he urged that all the conservative elements of business, politics and religion, should unite to defeat the communistic schemes of disorder set on foot by foreign adventurers who were seeking to establish a "French hell upon this Continent." A few weeks later H. M. Plaisted, in a letter written as a bid for the favor of Communists, denounced Gen. Garfield for that speech and declared: "When party leaders thus appeal to the fears of conservative men to protect themselves against the ballots of the people, is it not time that they be rotated out of power?"

The Democratic National Committee Involved.

AN INTERESTING CHAPTER OF DEMOCRATIC POLITICS.

The Morey Chinese letter is pronounced a forgery by Truth, the journal which originally published the letter. The following was published Tuesday, as an open letter from Truth to General Garfield, repudiating the Morey letter and declaring it a forgery:

To James A. Garfield, President-elect.

SIR—After a searching investigation, in which we have spared neither time, energy nor expense, we have traced the Morey letter to its origin and ascertained that it is a forgery. This acknowledgment is due you from the journal in which that letter first appeared. It is made voluntarily and as an act of simple justice; for while we believed, as we did until within a week past, that you were the author of the letter, no bribe could tempt or threat intimidate us into making a contrary statement; but having ascertained our error, it is a gratification to us to give the same prominence to this acknowledgment that we gave to the forged letter itself, and thereby make all the amends in our power for the wrong of which Truth was an unconscious instrument. Upon the instant that our investigations convinced us that the letter was spurious we privately informed you of our conclusion. At that time we were advised that the ends of justice might be impeded by public avowal such as we now make, but, as will appear by the appended letter from B. G. Jayne, Esq., that consideration no longer exists, and we do to-day what an observance of the principles upon which Truth was established, and by which it has been conducted, would have impelled us to do, immediately upon the discovery that the letter was a forgery, and which nothing could then have prevented, but the desire to fasten the guilt where it belongs. Truth published the letter in good faith, believing that you were its author. While we so believed neither temptation, threat nor force could influence us to repudiate it. Likewise, having now satisfied ourselves of its spurious character, no false pride nor selfish motive of any kind can restrain us from announcing our conclusion, and thereby allaying the doubt that now exists respecting its authenticity. Respectfully yours. TRUTH.

The following letter will also be published:

B. G. JAYNE'S NOTE TO MR. HART.

NEW YORK, December 31, 1880.

To Joseph Hart, Esq.:

DEAR SIR—In answer to your note of yesterday I would say that I can see no good reason for longer withholding the statement you desire to make in your paper, viz., that you are now satisfied from evidences in your possession that the letter published by you purporting to have been written by General J. A. Garfield to H. L. Morey of Lynn, Mass., was a forgery. Fully understanding the imposition practised upon you by certain members of the National Democratic Committee upon whose assurances you relied with regard to the genuineness of the letter, and knowing how earnestly you have worked to ascertain the authorship of the fraud by following every clew that seemed to lead to its solution, and fully appreciating your oft-repeated declarations that your only wish in the premises was to ascertain and proclaim the exact truth, I deem that in justice to all concerned the time has come when you should say the letter was a forgery, for with the proofs in your possession there can be no doubt as to the real criminals. Very respectfully,

B. G. JAYNE.

TRUTH'S EDITORIAL COMMENTS.

In connection with the retraction, Truth will say editorially, under the caption, "The Morey Letter a Forgery:" "To-day Truth voluntarily pronounces the famous Morey letter a forgery. Truth was established for the purpose of publishing the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, in all matters of public concern, and from the first issue neither effort nor expense has been spared to accomplish this high mission, regardless of whom it might help or whom it might hurt. But it is a mission too high for human honor or skill to wholly accomplish. Its attainment can only be approximated, though in aiming at perfection a higher standard may be reached than that of journals which will falsify, distort or suppress facts injuriously affecting their interest and inventing, or magnify others whose effect upon such interest would be beneficial. It is inevitable that erroneous statements will be made in a daily newspaper, however carefully conducted. But while no newspaper can be infallibly truthful, it is possible to remedy the injury which its errors cause when the errors are discovered, and it is the recognition of that possibility which distinguishes Truth from its contemporaries. When the Morey letter came to us we believed it to be a genuine letter of James A. Garfield. Our belief became absolute conviction when Speaker Randall, Senator Barnum, Orestes Cleveland, Abram S. Hewitt and other prominent members of the Democratic National Committee, all better able to judge than we were, unhesitatingly pronounced it genuine. Upon their assurance we published it in a form best calculated to impress a conviction of its genuineness upon the people, and while we believed we were right we were impervious to bribery and firm against thunders of intimidation and force. There was no influence on earth seductive enough or powerful enough to induce us to repudiate the letter. Believing it to be General Garfield's, Truth would have been crushed out of existence and its promoters would have submitted to the most relentless persecution rather than its columns should be defected by false confession or a hypocritical apology. But when in court the envelope was cut at both ends, and light revealed for the first time the fact that the original address upon the envelope had been erased, and that of Morey substituted; when it appeared that the Lynn hotel register containing the signature of H. L. Morey had no such signature upon its pages when given by the hotel proprietor to the agent of the Democratic committee who brought it here; when it appeared that the same agent procured the attendance of Samuel Morey, who falsely swore to the existence of Henry L. Morey; when it appeared that the same agent was active in procuring the Lindsay affidavit in Maryland, which induced us to send for Lindsay, who proved a conscienceless perjurer, and when photographic experiments with the Morey envelope proved that at last four addresses had been on it, each erased in turn, except the last two, with acids, and a third with an instrument—then Truth made efforts to solve the mystery, and ascertain the origin and history of the letter. In doing this we enlisted the services of B. G. Jayne, who is known to the country as a special treasury agent. Our investigations resulted in the discovery of positives proof that the letter is a forgery. Having made that discovery we announce it as prominently as we published the letter that there may not remain a trace of the belief which unquestionably still exists that it is genuine. We owe this not alone to Garfield as an act of justice, but owe it also to the principle upon which Truth is founded. Truth cannot avoid errors, but upon the discovery of them it acknowledges them, and thereby sustains the integrity of its motto, and this we have never refused to do and never shall refuse, whether the error affects the President of the United States or the meanest man in the streets of New York. In asserting as we do to-day, the true character of the letter as developed by our investigations, we make public all that truth and justice can require. The details of the investigation, facts discovered and parties implicated, will be made public in a court of justice, where we now challenge a meeting with those who have bent their energies to annihilate Truth, some of whom were actually and knowingly connected with the forgery before it came to us.

TWO LETTERS—WRITTEN BY THE SAME HAND—ANOTHER BLAST FROM TRUTH.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4. Truth promises to place all the evidence in its possession before the public showing that the Garfield Chinese letter is a forgery. In continuation of the plan adopted the paper will publish to-morrow a fac simile of the original Morey letter purporting to have been written by Garfield, and a fac simile of the letter published in the New York Star, October 24, two days later, purporting to have been written by Gen. Weaver, the Greenback candidate for President, under date of September 13, 1880, and addressed to Hon. E. H. Gillette. It will be remembered that General Weaver emphatically denied the authenticity of the letter and disavowed the sentiments expressed. Truth will say: "Compare these documents citizens. Did not the same hand write them both? One of them was first printed in the New York Star; the other in Truth. Did Kenwood Philp write the Morey letter?" It is explained in a leading editorial that the Star received the Weaver letter through the mail, enclosed in another letter. Truth says: "It requires no expert testimony to convince whoever sees them that one and the same hand wrote them both. The circumstances attending the reception of these letters with those that include them render it impossible that Philp should have written them. Who did write them, where they were written, and who possessed at least one of them before it came into the Truth office we shall prove." Truth claims it has received no assistance from the Republican National Committee, government officials or other outside parties in ferreting out the forgery, and that it has performed the work as an act of justice to General Garfield. The proofs when submitted will, it is said, be conclusive and complete.

THE NEW APPORTIONMENT.

Representative P. B. Young, of Kentucky, the Democratic member of the House Committe on the Census, who will have charge of drafting a reapportionment bill if the illness of Chairman Cox continues, figures that the Forty-eighth Congress will be composed of 300 members, as follows:—Maine 4; New Hampshire, 2; Vermont, 2; Massachusetts, 11; Rhode Island, 2; Connecticut, 4; New York, 31; New Jersey, 7; Pennsylvania, 26; Delaware, 1; Maryland, 6; Virginia, 9; West Virginia, 4; North Carolina, 9; South Carolina, 6; Georgia, 10; Florida, 2; Alabama, 8; Mississippi, 7; Louisiana, 6; Texas, 10; Ohio, 20; Indiana, 12; Illinois, 19; Wisconsin, 8; Michigan, 10; Minnesota, 5; Kentucky, 10; Tennessee, 10; Missouri, 13; Arkansas, 5; Iowa, 10; Nebraska, 3; Kansas, 6; Colorado, 1; Nevada, 1; California, 5; Oregon, 1.

On that apportionment the gain on the present number would be:—In Arkansas, 1; California, 1; Georgia, 1; Iowa, 1; Kansas, 3; Michigan, 1; Minnesota, 2; Mississippi, 1; Texas, 4, and West Virginia, 1.

The States losing representation would be Florida, 1; Maine, 1; New Hampshire, 1; Vermont, 1; New York, 2; Pennsylvania, 1. The representation from the other States would remain as now.

THE "SOUTHERN" CONUNDRUM.

[From the Memphis Avalanche (Ind-Dem.)]

The fact that no native of Illinois has ever been Governor of that State has no relevancy to the Southern native born theory as expounded by the Bourbons. Even the fact that seven of the Governors of that State were born in Kentucky has no bearing on the Southern question. Illinois is simply so many square miles of territory, a part of the territory of the United States, inhabited by several millions of people who are citizens of the United States. But the South is a different affair. Every Southern State is a part of the territory of a "political entity" styled "the South," that forms a part of the United States in a qualified sense only. The Avalanche is unable to explain the peculiar qualification which makes Southern citizenship differ ent from Northern citizenship. It merely chronicles the fact without attempting any explanation.

Boston still remains an extremely wealthy city, as a list of its rich men and women shows. The real estate of the city is valued at $437,230,600. The personal property is estimated at $201,858,600. There is a total increase of valuation over that of 1879 of $25,766,500. It is estimated that there is a large amount of property which never comes under the observation of the assessors, or is exempt from taxation, or pays only a State tax. There are not many millionaires in Boston, but there are a great many private fortunes of from $500,000 to $800,000. About $9,000,000 is raised by taxation. The rate is $15 20 per $1,000. There has been a marked advance in the value of real estate, and the outlook for the future is declared to be flattering. Boston has been greatly benefitted by the rise in the Western railway securities during the last year; but the general tendency is to invest in home real estate.

When the late Dr. Chapin, says the Boston Courier, first went to preach in Charlestown, he was waited on by the ladies of the church, who besought him to wear a gown in the pulpit. He modestly declined. They preferred the request a second time with the same result; but when the matter was urged a third time he consented, provided he could select the material, to which they agreed. He then declared his choice to be green baize.

A Galveston millionaire, applied to by his friends to allow his name to be put up for the United States Senatorship, said he aimed at another office. "A seat in the cabinet, eh?" "No, not that." "Foreign mission?" "Not that. Gentlemen, I'll be candid with you. For years I have been trying to get the city authorities to have the slop barrel at my back gate emptied once a month, and have failed. I am determined to have that barrel emptied, so I have applied to the City Council for the position of driver of a scavenger cart."

The old Family Physician at Fault—Dr. David Kennedy the Successful Surgeon.

Money is the universal necessity, and none but a cynic or a fool will affect to despise it. Mr. Abram Elsworth, of Port Ewen, Ulster county, N. Y., had realized this truth. His disease involved the whole of his thigh-bone, and the suffering man looked forward, not without apparent reason, to death as his only deliverer. His family physician refused to amputate the limb—asserting that the operation would kill the patient on the spot. Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who was consulted, held a different opinion and amputated the limb. The Doctor then administered freely his great Blood Specific FAVORITE REMEDY to afford tone and strength to the system, prevent the return of the disease, and Mr. Elsworth remains to this day in the bloom of health. This gentleman's disease was the offspring of foul blood, and Kennedy's FAVORITE REMEDY purified the blood and restored to him the power once more to enjoy his life. Are you suffering from any disease traceable to the same cause? Try Favorite Remedy. Your druggist has it. ONE DOLLAR a Bottle. Whig and Courier.

FRIDAY, JAN. 7, 1881.

THE SENATORSHIP.

The Contest Practically Settled.

MR. HALE'S NOMINATION ASSURED.

[Special despatch to the Whig and Courier.]

AUGUSTA, Jan. 6. The Senatorial question is practically settled and the nomination of Mr. Hale is conceded. The declaration of Capt. Goss, of Bath, and Hon. L. R. King, of Caribou, in favor of Mr. Hale, was a very damaging blow to the friends of Mr. Frye. Capt. Goss is one of the most prominent citizens of Bath, the largest wooden ship builder in the United States, a man of high character and large influence. Mr. King is one of the prominent men of Eastern Maine and he but voices the opinion of the Republicans of his section of the State in declaring for Mr. Hale. It is well understood here that there are several members from Mr. Frye's District who do not desire his nomination and it is not at all certain but what he will lose four votes in the Second Congressional District. Mr. Hale will receive the united vote of eight counties, namely, Aroostook, Piscataquis, Penobscot, Washington, Hancock, Knox, Lincoln and Somerset, and as I stated yesterday, a majority of the votes in Kennebec and Cumberland. Waldo has two votes and will be divided. Mr. Frye only carries the entire vote of three counties, and the probabilities are only two. It is now understood that no vote will be thrown for any candidate other than Mr. Hale or Frye. The relative strength of the candidates is as stated yesterday. Mr. Frye's supporters are feeling quite blue over the outlook. He has had, however, a strong corps of workers, but they all from the first felt that it was up-hill work. The united East has been too powerful to overcome.

At a meeting of the Oxford county delegation to-night, Senators Bisbee and Walker and Representative Twitchell, declared for Mr. Hale. He will undoubtedly have seventy votes. OCCASIONAL.

Senate.

[SPECIAL TO WHIG AND COURIER.]

AUGUSTA, Jan. 6. Order from the House limiting the time to the 20th inst., for the presentation of petitions or orders for private or special legislation, was read and tabled on motion of Mr. Dingley of Androscoggin.

The committee on Senatorial votes made their report, which was read and accepted.

A communication was received from the Governor, giving a list embracing reprieves and pardons of convicts for the past year, which was read and sent down. Seventeen were released.

Messrs. Berry of Kennebec, Hill of Hancock, and Wakefield of York, were appointed a committee on the part of the Senate to contract for the State printing and binding for the current year.

Mr. Berry of Kennebec offered the following:

Ordered, (the House concurring) That Section 1 of the joint rules and orders of the two Houses be amended by adding to the list of joint standing committees, a committee on the State College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts.

Mr. Parcher, of Androscoggin, moved the indefinite postponement of the order.

Mr. Smith of Penobscot did not think that a committee was necessary.

Mr. Berry favored, and gave reasons.

Mr. Jennings of Penobscot moved that the order be tabled, and it was so ordered.

House.

After the reading of the journal on motion of Mr. Strout of Portland, the roll was called and 136 members responded to their names. A recess was then taken until 11.45 o'clock.

A communication from Gov. Davis furnishing a list of reprieves and pardons granted in 1880, was read, and on motion of Mr. Wentworth, of Kittery, was ordered printed.

On motion of Mr. Bridgham, of Buckfield,

Ordered, That a joint select committee of seven on part of the House, with such as the Senate may join, be appointed to prepare specifications for the State printing and binding for the years 1881 and 1882; advertise for sealed proposals, and contract therefor with the responsible bidder or bidders whose proposals shall be the lowest, and report said contract or contracts to the Legislature, by resolve.

In Joint Convention.

Both branches assembled in joint convention, and elected State officers, the votes standing as follows:

For Secretary of State.

J. O. Smith had	103
Prince A. Sawyer	62

and Mr. Smith was declared elected.

For Attorney General.

Henry B. Cleaves had	102
F. D. R. Hastings	60

and Mr. Cleaves was declared elected.

For Adjutant General.

George L. Beal had	102
M. M. Folsom	55

and Mr. Beal was declared elected.

The following were elected members of the Executive Council: Roscoe L. Bowers, Saco, 1st District; Frederic Roble, Gorham, 2d; Joseph T. Hinckley, Bluehill, 3d; Wm. Wilson, Hallowell, 4th; J. G. Pendleton, Searsport, 5th; Lewis Barker, Bangor, 6th; Samuel N. Campbell, Cherryfield, 7th.

In the vote for Councillors from the Penobscot district John B. Foster, Fusion candidate, ran one behind his ticket, which vote was given to Mr. Barker.

[To the Associated Press.]

State Officers and Councillors Elected—The Gubernatorial Question Likely to be Submitted to the Court.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 6. The Governor sent to the Senate a list of pardons and reprieves in the State Prison for the past year, numbering 17.

The Committee on Senatorial Votes reported the list of Senators previously published.

A joint convention of both branches was held in the hall of the House and the following officers elected: Secretary of State, Joseph O. Smith; Attorney General, Henry B. Cleaves; Adjutant General, George L. Beal. Executive Councillors, Hon Roscoe L. Bowen, 1st Councillor District; Hon. Frederick Roble, 2d District; Hon. Joseph T. Hinkley, 3d District; Hon. Wm. Wilson, 4th District; Hon. James G. Pendleton, 5th District; Hon. Lewis Barker, 6th District, and Hon. Samuel A. Campbell, 7th District.

The Committee on Gubernatorial votes are not yet ready to report.

The opinion is gaining ground that the gubernatorial question will be submitted to the Court.

The Sub-Committee Ready to Report—The Gubernatorial Vote.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 6. The sub-committee on the gubernatorial votes are ready to report to the full committee to-morrow. They find the following result on a straight vote without any irregularity: Davis, 73,130; Plaisted, 73,367; Nye, 306; Joy, 124; scattering, 55. The misnomers number 133. Quite a number of irregular returns not signed by the clerk, etc., are not reckoned in the above, but will be reported to the full committee.

The Bills of Pillsbury & Co. and A. J. Cameron Not Allowed.

The Executive Council have declined to allow the bill of E. F. Pillsbury & Co., State Printer for 1879, for some $3,000, rendered for printing agricultural reports, and the same action on the bill of A. J. Cameron, State Binder, for binding the same, amounting to $610. The work was not authorized by any law or order of the Legislature, but was done at the risk of the parties.

A Fusion Conference to be Held.

A conference is to be held here to-morrow of the two wings of the Fusion party, in an endeavor to harmonize for future political action. It is expected that a large number of leading Fusionists will be present.

Hale's Election Almost Certain.

As the time approaches for the Senatorial caucus to-morrow night, Mr. Hale's election seems almost certain, unless something unforeseen occurs. An inroad has been made on Mr. Frye's own District, hitherto counted as solid. At a protracted meeting of the Oxford County delegation this afternoon, Senators Bisbee and Walker, and Representative Twitchell announced their intention to support Mr. Hale's candidacy. The Frye men are now working against odds.

The Votes for Governor—Official Returns.

Official returns give Daniel F. Davis 73,506; Harris M. Plaisted, 73,372; Harrison and Morris Plaisted, 463; Nye, 316; scattering, 173. It is stated that copies of records will show that 346 of Harrison and Morris Plaisted votes were cast for Harris M. Plaisted. The record of Ellsworth gives 57 Plaisted votes. The committee have not decided what to do about amending returns by the records.

Hale's Election as Senator, Sure.

At eleven o'clock to-night the Senatorial situation was suddenly changed by a committee from Mr. Frye's friends waiting upon Mr. Hale, and unconditionally withdrawing Mr. Frye's name from the canvass and tendering their support in caucus. This assures an unanimous nomination in the Republican caucus to-morrow night, and renders Mr. Hale's election as Senator sure.

THE SENATORSHIP.

Withdrawal of Mr. Frye.

THE CONTEST ENDS AMICABLY.

Mr. Hale Congratulated by the Friends of Mr. Frye.

[Special Despatch to the Whig and Courier.]

AUGUSTA, Jan. 6. The Senatorial contest was ended amicably this evening by the voluntary withdrawal of the name of Mr. Frye. At a meeting of his friends it was unanimously decided that in view of the declaration for Mr. Hale by several members upon whose support they had counted for Mr. Frye, the latter gentleman's strength was so impaired that his nomination could not reasonably be hoped for, and that the best interests of the party and of all concerned would be promoted by the avoidance of a protracted or acrimonious contest. Acting upon this unanimous determination of the friends of Mr. Frye, who have given him a very gallant support, Hon. J. W. Wakefield, of Bath, and Hon. Wilbur F. Lunt, of Portland, who have conducted Mr. Frye's campaign with great ability and fidelity, called upon Mr. Hale, at the Augusta House, at 11 P. M., and advised him of the withdrawal, expressing the hope that harmonious relations would continue between all parties. Mr. Hale very cordially responded, and he has since been receiving the congratulations of friends, in which the friends of Mr. Frye have freely and warmly joined. The best of feeling prevails and on all sides there is satisfaction that the contest has been so amicably ended. There is much discussion of the Governor question and the report of the Committee on Returns is awaited with much interest. C. A. BOUTELLE.

FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS—Third Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.

The consular and diplomatic appropriation bill placed on calendar.

The Senate considered the calendar the first bill being one to punish the tramps in the District of Columbia.

Pending the debate the morning hour expired the Army Appropriation bill was read twice and referred to Appropriations Committee.

The bill for the relief of Ben. Halliday was resumed. Morrill, Wallace and McPherson opposed the Halliday bill and Teller supported it.

Pending debate the Senate went into executive session. Adjourned.

The Senate in executive session confirmed Geo. Goff as Secretary of the Navy without the usual reference to committee.

House.

The morning hour was dispensed with and the House went into Committee of the Whole upon the funding bill. The only arrangement in regard to limitations of debate was that made before Halliday's bill, which limited general discussions to one day.

Mr. Kelley of Pa., took the floor in opposition to the bill.

The amendment granting to State Banks the privilege of circulation on depositing three per cent. bonds with the U. S. Treasurer, was ordered printed.

The House Committee on Post Offices, to-day decided to report favorably upon the bill providing that the rate of postage on second class publications, delivered by carrier, shall be two cents a pound.

Mr. Morse presented to the House a petition for the repeal of the check stamp act and of taxes on Bank capital and deposits, signed by 2,800 New England merchants.

After discussion of the Funding Bill the Committee rose without action and the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON.

Nomination.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6. The President sent to the Senate to-day the nomination of Nathan Goff, Jr., of West Virginia, to be Secretary of the Navy. Goff is about 40 years old and a man of ability. He has been U. S. District Attorney at Clarksburg, W. Va., for twelve years; was a Brigadier General in the late war; has run for Congress and the gubernatorial chair of his State several times, and always ran ahead of his ticket. He is very popular among both Republicans and Democrats.

U. S. Gunboat to be sent to Hong Kong.

At the request of the U. S. Consul at Hong Kong, a gunboat has been ordered to that place to investigate the reports of the wreck of the American ship James Bailey on the Island of Hairan, and that the captain and crew had been driven away and the vessel plundered by the Chinese.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Gov. Jarvis' Message.

RALEIGH, Jan. 6. Gov. Jarvis in his message speaks in warm terms of the relations existing between the blacks and whites, and says the colored people are becoming more industrious and thrifty. He regards it as an imperative duty that the whites should see that in all things full and equal justice shall be done the blacks and that they are not left to work out their own destiny alone. He also favored greater provision for public schools.

NEW YORK STATE.

"A Bit of Amusement."

A Brutal Officer Kills His Son.

Bark Erbrun, from Hull, to-day reports on the second inst., fell in with brig Doane, Cardiff for St. Johns, N. F., dismasted and in a sinking condition. She took off the captain and crew of seven men.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

The Strike at Suncook—Riotous Proceedings.

SUNCOOK, N. H., Jan. 6. The strike is getting more exciting every hour. At 6.30, when the mill bell rang, most of the strikers were at the gates of the Webster and Pembroke mills. Their leader, Joseph Kaye, a French Canadian, acting in a violent manner, was arrested by special officers and taken to the station, followed by hundreds throwing sticks and with drawn knives. The officers were obliged to draw their revolvers and use billies many times before reaching the station house. The prisoner is now under guard. It is expected there will be an attempt to release him as the strikers make threats to that effect.

James Landers, living on Fern street, caught eight barrels of tomcods yesterday, in two hours.

The first of the Knights of Pythias assemblies takes place this evening. The course opens with a good list of subscribers.

We understand that a good deal of interest is being manifested in the proposed Bangor Academy of Music, and that the scheme will soon be revived, with good prospects of a success this time.

Foundations for three new hotels have been put in at Old Orchard beach, and more than fifty cottages are now going up, or are contracted for. Before the close of another season fully one hundred and fifty will have been erected.

A charcoal vender's fiery steeds attempted to run away yesterday, but it wasn't a success. Their spavined legs and disorganized breathing apparatus reminded them that their frisky days were over, and they stopped, disgusted at their attempt.

This being the week of prayer among all religious denominations, and Friday especially set apart for temperance, the churches will unite with the Crusade in a union gospel temperance meeting at City Hall this evening. The hall will doubtless be filled. Let us hope that good results may follow.

AMUSEMENT NOTES. Among the attractions promised by the Buskin Club for the month are the Christy Minstrels, now performing at Horticultural Hall, Boston, "The Tourists in a Pullman Palace Car," now at the Boston Gaiety; a fine opera company in "Fatinitza," and Real and Draper's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Company. The latter company has with them a pack of Siberian bloodhounds.

FATAL ACCIDENT. Wednesday night, as the train from Boston, over the Boston & Maine, was approaching Newmarket a man suddenly stepped in front of the engine just before the train stopped and had an arm and leg cut off and several ribs broken. He declined to give his name, and was left at Newmarket. It was thought he was either slightly intoxicated or it was a case of deliberate suicide.

PERSONAL. The Commercial has the following personal: "We are authorized to contradict the sensational story concerning a contemplated matrimonial alliance between Gov.-elect Plaisted and the daughter of Hon. F. W. Hill, of Exeter. The report had no foundation in fact, and contradiction should be made by the papers which have helped to give currency to the erroneous statement."

THE LADIES' RELIEF CORPS are making arrangements for a select assembly to take place some evening next week, the precise time of which will be announced in a few days. For those who do not care to dance, other amusements will be provided. The tickets, we understand, are to be placed on sale at L. W. Atkins' store, at E. E. Small's and at Edward Jordan's, and are not to be transferable. A reduction is to be made to members of the G. A. R.

A CIGAR TRICK. A fellow has been peddling cigars around Portland which he claims are imported, and which he offers at the unusually low rate of $6 to $9 per hundred, because he says they were landed without duty. He has several nice Cuba cigars in the center of the bunch he offers, and when he thinks he has got a customer he pushes one of them out for a sample. He has been very successful in getting rid of his $13 a thousand cigars at the above prices. Whether the customers like the rest of their purchases as well as the samples is for them to decide.

SUDDEN DEATH. Tuesday evening Mr. Joseph Currier died suddenly at his residence in Portland from heart disease, of which he had had occasional attacks for years. Mr. Currier was as well as usual early in the evening, and sat talkatively with his family. He rose to place something on the bureau when he fell back and died almost instantly. Mr. Currier was nearly 84 years old, and for many years has been a well known bell hanger in Portland. He was a member of the Aged Brotherhood and of the Charitable Mechanic Association, having joined the latter society in 1853.

A COLD BATH. At the fishway on our dammed river the water whirls with great velocity, thus preventing its freezing. At this point is a wharf built to protect the banks. This is the resort of our tomcod fishermen, where barrels of tomcods are daily caught in dip nets. Recently one of these degenerate disciples of Walton lost his balance and plunged headforemost into the cold embrace of the boiling flood. He was finally rescued by his companions with the aid of their nets. As he was drawn up and safely landed on the wharf, he floundered about like a disconsolate bullhead. It was a narrow escape from drowning.

MASSACHUSETTS HOMOEOPATHIC HOSPITAL. We have received the tenth annual report of the Massachusetts Homoeopathic Hospital, and of the Ladies' Aid Association, for the year ending Jan. 1, 1880. From this report we learn that this institution has been attended with a large measure of success during the past year, and that there has been a considerable increase in the average number of patients treated. Friends of the Hospital can aid it by donation of money, in any amount and at any time, as it is always needed; also by contributing flowers, vegetables, provisions, books, ornaments, clothing, bandages, old linen, and whatever is necessary or useful for the sick.

ANNIVERSARY AND INSTALLATION.—Bangor Division No. 14 S. of T. celebrated their twenty-third anniversary last evening. The exercises consisted of installation of officers by the G. W. P., H. A. Fowler; New Year's address, by the Grand Worthy Patriarch; historical address of the Division and the cause it advocates, by Bro. J. S. Kimball; select readings and declamations, by members. The following are the officers installed: H. B. Cushman, W. P.; W. H. Dadd, W. A.; H. A. Fowler, R. S.; A. D. Fowler, A. R. S.; J. S. Kimball, F. S.; S. S. Kimball, W. T.; Mrs. A. Palmer, Chap.; E. Wilder, Con.; Miss White, A. Con.; E. C. Witess, I. S.; Chas. Rand, O. S. The participants expressed themselves as well pleased with the exercises of the evening.

A SINGULAR DEATH. Peculiar circumstances attended the death of a man in Lewiston a few days ago. The man was Mr. Lawrence Eccles, a native of England, who lost his voice over a year ago, and who did not speak a word until the night previous to his death. He awoke his wife before morning, shouting and laughing. When it became light he made his folks put him on a sofa and wheel him into the sitting room. "Now I want you to put me before the looking glass so I can see myself die," he said. His folks pooh-poohed at the idea, but had to comply with his request. He folded his hands before his breast, turned his face toward the mirror, and in a few moments was dead.

SUDDEN DEATH. We learn from the Aroostook Times that Mr. B. Coffin Smith, an aged and respected citizen of Linneus, met with a sudden death in that town on Monday evening last. It appears that he went that evening to a neighbor's barn across the street from where he lived, to feed some stock, and as he was gone some time the family became anxious about him, and search being made he was found dead at the foot of the stairs in the barn, with a pitchfork and lantern on either side of him. It is supposed that he accidently fell down the stairs, breaking his neck, and causing death within two hours afterward. His sons, Zemro A., of the Boston Journal, Joseph O., Assistant Secretary of State, Augusta, and Neal D., of Portland, were telegraphed for.

SANFORD STEAMERS—CHANGE OF TIME. Commencing Jan. 10th, the Katahdin will make two trips a week until further notice, leaving Winterport Mondays and Thursdays, and Boston Tuesdays and Fridays. Passengers from Bangor to Boston will go via Bucksport, as usual, leaving Bucksport at one P. M., Winterport at ten A. M. For the accommodation of shippers of fruit and perishable freight, extra care is taken that nothing is chilled or frozen, as the steamer is warmed by steam, and stove cars are run between Bangor and Bucksport on the B. & B. Railroad. The company are to commence building a new boat to run on this route. She will be about the size of the Cambridge, and it is expected she will come on the route next fall. A large passenger and freight business has been done by the Sanford Steamship Company during the past year. The Cambridge makes her last trip of the season to-day.

RETURNED TO HIS NATIVE HEATH. Maj. C. C. Bennett, formerly of Bradford, in this county, but lately of California and the Sandwich Islands, was at the Globe Hotel, Wednesday evening, on his return to his old home. Maj. Bennett left his home about thirty-five years ago; he first went to California and engaged in the stock raising business, but while everything else prospered, his health broke completely down, and his doctor advised him to go to the Sandwich Islands to recuperate. He went and remained on the Islands 14 years, married one of the native women, and then returned to California. But his shattered constitution was unequal to the climate and he returned to the Islands. During his second stay at the islands the Major contracted a sort of paralysis, which rendered his lower limbs almost useless, and he resolved to return home. He arrived here as above stated, and left yesterday morning with his daughter for his old home in Bradford. The Major is now about 65 years of age, and is otherwise than his paralytic trouble in good health.

MAINE SEAMEN LOST. The barque Europa, of New Haven, Conn., commanded by Captain William Dodge, of Orrington, Me., sailed from the port of New York on the 16th day of last September, bound for Barbadoes. The Europa was a good vessel, and there was no reason to suppose that any unseaworthiness would cause disaster on the ocean; she was spoken by another vessel September 29th, thirteen days out all well. But since that day no tidings of the fated barque have reached home, and now, when all reasonable time for her appearance has long since passed, all hope is given up, and the Europa, with her precious cargo and gallant crew must be numbered among the treasures which the greedy sea has swallowed up. The most harrowing perhaps of all the sorrowful details is that the wives of Captain Dodge and the mate, Mr. Redmond, of Islesboro, were sisters, now mutually afflicted, and mourning the loss of their husbands, who both disappeared in the same way. Capt. Dodge was a fine man in every sense of the word, and was just in the prime of life; the mate, as above mentioned belonged in Islesboro, and the remainder of the crew probably shipped in New York. The vessel was probably lost in a great hurricane which occurred shortly after she was spoken. —Argus.

I. O. O. F.—Installation, Supper, Etc.

There was a public installation last evening at Odd Fellows Hall, of the officers of Penobscot Lodge I. O. O. F. The occasion was a most enjoyable one to those who were present. The installation exercises were followed by a supper at the hall after which the assembly adjourned to Music Hall, where those who desired participated in dancing. The festivities closed at a seasonable hour. The following officers were installed by D. D. G. M., John G. Leonard, Jr.: Mason S. Norton, N. G.; Clark W. Cayting, V. G.; John T. Bowler, Secretary; John E. Booth, Treasurer; S. H. Hall, Con.; H. E. Ward, War.; C. E. Colvin, I. G.; Otis Maddocks, O. G.; C. J. Small, R. S. N. G.; F. H. Chick, L. S. N. G.; B. F. Cobb, R. S. V. G.; Leslie Kellan, L. S. V. G.; N. M. Jones, R. S. S.; C. H. Glass, L. S. S.

Redpath's Lecture To-night.

Mr. James Redpath, the famous correspondent, distinguished lecturer and advocate of human rights, will deliver his lecture on "The Irish Land War and Boycotting," this evening, at Norombega Hall. Having carefully studied the almost romantic history of the Emerald Isle and her people, and made the condition of the Irish tenantry a subject of personal investigation, it may be assumed that Mr. Redpath is qualified to treat Irish topics with authority. The sufferings of the tenantry of Ireland are vividly pictured, and his eloquent and pathetic, and at times humorous, recital of their wrongs is creating an American sympathy for the Land League. "Boycotting" is fully explained, and the unpopular agent is not spared. Mr. Redpath will doubtless be greeted by a full house.

Teachers' Meeting.

By direction of the Supervising School Committee there will be a Teachers' meeting held in the High School building, Saturday afternoon, 8th instant, at 2 o'clock, when all the teachers of the public schools in the city are expected to be present. The programme is as follows:

2.30.—Call to order, and remarks upon the character of such meetings and the advantages resulting therefrom, by members of the committee.

3.—Report of the doings of the State Educational Society, at Pittsfield, by Prof. Jerome.

3.30—Practical questions discussed, as, Is it advisable to teach spelling by sound to primary and intermediate pupils?—Should the pronunciation of each syllable be insisted upon in spelling?—Is sufficient attention given to deportment in recitations?—Ought we to desire to secure uniformity in these and other similar respects, and can we do so?

4.—Arrangements for future meetings.

4.15—Adjournment.

Per order of Committee.

[illegible] How to make them so. Keep them in Health and they will take care of the Rest. The joy of every well-regulated household comes chiefly from the children. Thousands of affectionate parents do not take care of their children. Through ignorance more than through culpable neglect they suffer them to fall sick and die, when knowledge might have saved them to love and home. Dr. David Kennedy offers his "Favorite Remedy" as emphatically a medicine for the children—gentle in its action, containing no harmful ingredients whatever, going straight to the Blood, which, when impure, is the seat and source of disease. "Favorite Remedy" is the friend of childhood and should be found in every nursery in the land. Keep it in your house for your children's sake, as well as for your own. Try it and you will be glad you saw this article. Make no mistakes. The medicine is "Favorite Remedy" and the proprietor's name and address: Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y. FELLOWS' HYPOPHOSPHITES.

WASTING DISEASES

Such as Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, General Debility, Brain Exhaustion, Chronic Constipation, Chronic Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, or

LOSS OF NERVOUS POWER.

Are positively cured by FELLOWS' COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES.

As phosphorus enters so largely into the animal economy, it becomes par excellence the best vehicle with which to associate the other vitalizing ingredients of healthy Blood, Nerve and Muscle. In Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites are combined all the substances found necessary to insure robust health, and whereas it was invented with a view to supply every deficiency, it certainly has performed some wonderful cures.

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 18, 1880.

MR. JAMES I. FELLOWS.

Dear Sir: I wish to acknowledge the great benefit I have received from the use of "Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites." I have been an invalid for nearly two years, with a bronchial affection that had become chronic. In the Fall of 1878 I had a physician eighty days in succession, besides the counsel of several others. They gave me but little encouragement, some of them none. Last July I was advised to give your remedy a trial. I did so, and in less than one week there was a marked improvement for the better. I have continued its use from that time until the present, improving all the time and I can truthfully say I am more than a hundred per cent. better than when I commenced its use. I have increased in weight about fifteen pounds, and my cough, which was fearful, has nearly disappeared. I believe had it not been for your Syrup, I should ere this have been beyond the cares of life. Very truly yours,

ALBERT STORY.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name; no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

THE TRUSTEES OF THE

MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL HOSPITAL,

Make this Public Appeal for Aid.

It is desired to enlarge the Hospital building and to add to its facilities for serving the community.

The work of the Hospital has been steadily creasing since its foundation in 1821. During the past year a larger number of persons than ever before have been received into the building, and the demand for the treatment of free patients is now more pressing than at any previous time.

The need of larger accommodation for the various departments is very great. It is deemed by the Trustees to be a matter of absolute necessity to add to the Hospital building a surgical ward, a lying-in-ward, and a children's ward; and funds are also imperatively needed to maintain the work at its present point of efficiency and success.

The Trustees hope that the friends of the Hospital and all who have any knowledge or experience of the benefits that it has conferred, will answer this appeal with the same generosity that was displayed at the time of its foundation; and that liberal donations and annual subscriptions will be given to meet its immediate requirements, as well as to greatly increase its means and opportunities for usefulness.

Subscriptions and Donations may be sent to ISAAC FENNO, Treasurer, 38 Summer street, Boston, Mass.

CELERY AND CHAMOMILE PILLS.

These Pills have met with the most Remarkable Success as is attested by the Immense Sales they have Attained.

Parsons, Bangs & Co., have had Eighteen Hundred Dozens the Past Year.

Hundreds have testified to the Benefit they have derived from their use in the cure of Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Paralysis, Sleeplessness and Indigestion.

It is a Fully Established Fact, Based on Actual Experience, and There is No Kind of Doubt but They Will Cure These Diseases.

DR. C. W. BENSON'S CELERY AND CHAMOMILE PILLS are prepared expressly to cure Sick Headache, Nervous Headache, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Paralysis, Sleeplessness and Indigestion or Dyspepsia, and will cure any case, no matter how obstinate, if properly used. They are not a cure-all, but only for those special diseases. They contain no opium, morphine or quinine, and are not a purgative, but regulate the bowels and cure constipation by curing or removing the causes of it. They have a charming effect upon the skin, and a lovely, quieting effect upon the nervous system, simply by feeding its ten thousand hungry, yes, in some cases starving absorbants. They make or create nerve matter and give power, force and buoyancy to the nerves, and in that way increase mental force, endurance and brilliancy of mind. Nobody that has a nervous system should neglect to take them two or three months in each year, simply as a nerve food, if for no other purpose. Price 50 cts. a box, or six boxes for $2.50, sent postage free. Sold by all druggists, and by
